

JIMMY MICHAEL BREAKS A RECORD

Rode Ten Miles and Made the Last
Mile in 1:39 Flat.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN.

He Was Practicing for a 15-Mile Race
With Harry Elkes for Next Saturday.

New York, Dec. 18.—According to the time pieces of a number of spectators, Jimmy Michael broke the world's indoor record for a mile at Madison Square Garden while practicing for his fifteen mile race next Saturday night. The Welsh midget went the last mile of a ten mile trial in 1:39 flat, it is said.

The dispatch does not state whether Michael was paced or not, but in all probability, he rode the ten miles behind a motor cycle. It is said that he broke the "world's indoor record for a mile," but it is believed that to Charley Turville belongs that distinction. During the race at the Salt Palace track last season, Iver Lawson rode a mile in 1:33 3-5, and on the following evening Charley Turville lowered Iver's record to 1:32 flat, amid the cheers of nearly 5,000 enthusiastic persons.

COUNCIL AGAIN FIGHTING.
Chicago Officials Unanimous in Their Declarations Concerning It.

Chicago, Dec. 17.—There will be no more prize fights held in Chicago, unless Mayor Carter Harrison vetoes an anti-fight resolution almost unanimously adopted by the city council tonight. The unsatisfactory ending to the Gans-McGovern contest at Tattersall's last Thursday night stirred up so much feeling that the council decided that all pugilistic encounters should be prohibited in the future.
According to the resolution adopted, no permits for sparring or boxing exhibitions can be issued by the mayor, and the chief of police is held responsible for the law being carried out. It is believed the mayor will sign the ordinance, as it passed by the vote of 54 to 14.
The penalty against prize-fighting, according to the State law, is from one to ten years' imprisonment in the penitentiary for each offense.

SIMS ON RACING IN FRANCE.
American Style of Riding Superior to that of Foreigners.

Will Sims, the American jockey who arrived from Europe on the Teutonic, says he was successful on the French turf as he expected to be. In France Sims rode at Vincennes, Chantilly, Longchamps and also at Nee, and while he had not a strong stable to ride for, he managed to put five winners in the pot in four months during four weeks. This achievement secured him a satisfactory contract for next season with a stronger stable, the name of which he does not care to give out at present. He will then return to France and spring and then return to America. He said: "I would much rather ride in America than in France, but I did not seem to get mounts here which had any reasonable chance of winning, and only rode 15 races. Then I decided to go to France. I never was in better trim and can ride 15 pounds or even less without difficulty."
"The French courses are all on the turf, and the only available jockeys to jockey are third rate English boys. Frenchmen don't take kindly to riding. They still ride with the saddle away back, and the jockeys had little to say about it until Cash Sloan and other American boys made wins. Then they began to let us have a little say in the matter. When I first rode, being new there, I did not even make any suggestions, for it is possible to ride with a forward seat even if the saddle is placed back, only it is more wearying and tells in a long distance. The hands have to be a couple of feet in front of the body, and the act of balancing is harder, and when the horse is tiring he is more likely to swerve, for the rider has not the same control over him."
"It is also a disadvantage when one goes to the whip, for to strike the horse the upright seat has to be taken."
"The boys there, English though they be, seem to have little knowledge of the horse strike his strides when he feels like it, and then start to ride a long finish. I was off and away as here, and they never had a chance to catch me if my horse was within ten pounds of the best behind me.

"After the first race or two I suggested placing the saddle further forward, and while the French trainer shrugged his shoulders and seemed to think it was foolish, he let it go and I won again. Another thing is, although the English boys put me a great bluff, they did not help the horse at the finish. They rolled around, but the preliminaries were like doing a lot of work, but they did not get there.
"The French trainers are nice and treat one well, but they will train on the methods of the English and not on the methods of Wishard and other up to date Americans."

MAHER GOES DOWN.
Fights Ruhlman Six Rounds—Bout
Was Fast and Furious.

Philadelphia, Dec. 17.—Gus Ruhlman and Peter Maher met tonight at the Penn Art Athletic club in a six-round contest that proved to be one of the lengthiest and most furious bouts of that kind seen here for some time. Under the local laws, no decisions are permitted, judgment as to the outcome being left to the spectators. The consensus of opinion was that Ruhlman had by far the better of the fight, and clearly outclassed the Irishman, notwithstanding Maher put up one of the gamiest battles that he has ever done. Both men were in excellent shape, and from the first round of the bell to the end of the fight went at it hammer and tongs. Maher was especially active in the first three rounds, after which he did not show the same form, but apparently avoided the heavy swings of Ruhlman. Attendance, 4,000.

Billiard Championship.
New York, Dec. 17.—Albert Cutler of Boston won the amateur class B billiard championship of the A. A. U. at the Knickerbocker Athletic club tonight. Cutler had previously defeated Kelly of Chicago, who in turn beat Behndick of this city, but Hendrick tonight defeated Cutler and while he tied with the Bostonian on games won, Cutler won his average of the last three games played.

Coming Pigeon Shoot.
New York, Dec. 18.—James Elliott, the pigeon shooter, of Kansas City, is coming east and will contest with Robert Welch, the Cartaret Gun club's expert, at Interstate Park, Long Island, on January 18. Much interest is shown in the contest.

Jockey Coburn vs. Lottridge.
Oakland, Cal., Dec. 17.—Jockey Coburn today filed a suit against Thomas W. Lottridge, owner of a stable now at the Oakland track and employer of the plaintiff. Coburn charges that Lottridge has threatened to "post" all over the country if the plaintiff does not pay him $2,500. The suit is brought to prevent the possible "posting" of the jockey. Coburn says his mother in England contracted for him to ride for Lottridge for a small sum of money.

Casid Elected Captain.
New York, Dec. 18.—Cadet Adam F. Casid, of Kentucky, will be captain of next year's West Point Military Academy football team. His election by a unanimous vote has just been announced. Cadet Casid has generally played half-back, but on several occasions took the place of quarterback. The new captain is short and stands high in the class of 1902.

Hovison Issues Challenge.
New York, Dec. 18.—Leonard Hovison, the Canadian professional billiard player, has challenged Ora Morningstar to a 1,000 point match at 14 ball balk line for $250 a side. Mr. Morningstar has signified his desire to accept, and a date soon will be set for the contest. Two nights will be occupied by the match.

LOCAL EVENTS.
M'COY AND SMITH SIGN.
Will "Go" Twenty Rounds—To Meet
Next Month.

Last evening, Denver Ed. Smith and Ed. McCoy of Canton, O., signed articles for a 20-round go, to take place not later than January 20th. They will fight for 70 per cent of the gate receipts and a side bet. The bout will be in Clark and Lange's club rooms, and will be well worth seeing.

TONIGHT'S FISTIC CONTEST.
Young Christy and Jim Francis Are Ready for the Battle.

A large crowd will be on hand tonight to witness the 20-round fistic contest between young Christy and Jim Francis. The main event will begin at 10 o'clock sharp, but the preliminaries will begin one hour earlier. Both men are in splendid condition and there are few indeed who believe that the contest will go the limit. In betting circles young Christy is the favorite, but the Francis people are anxious to take odds.

ORATOR JIM O'ROURKE.
Tim Hurst Tells Him What People
Are Saying.

Tim Hurst tells a story on Orator Jim O'Rourke which illustrates the orator's pompous style of speech. O'Rourke had met Hurst on the street. "Timothy," said the orator, "do you know why I was released? Have you heard what they said about me?"
"Yes," answered the little umpire, "but there is no use to talk about it."
"Timothy," said the orator, impressively, "I insist that you, as a friend, tell me what they say of me."
"Well," responded Tim, reluctantly, "it don't amount to much, but they say that while the team was out west you wrote back to one of the officials saying some of the boys were drinking."
"Do they say that, Timothy?" asked O'Rourke, sadly. "Do they say that?"
"Yes."
"Then I understand it all, Timothy. But, Timothy, a man who would say that about me would stab his poor father while he was weeping on his dead mother's grave."

Football Game at Provo.
The football game, next Friday, between the Provo team and the Salt Lake Business College team is expected to be an interesting one. Both teams are practicing hard and getting into the pink of condition. The Provo team is somewhat handicapped on account of having had much practice of late, but hopes to make up for this deficiency by hard work. The coach, who has been working hard with the boys for a week past, thinks that if they keep cool they have a good chance to win.
The game will take place on the west square commencing at 2 o'clock. In the evening a grand ball will be given in honor of the visiting team.
The following is the line-up:
Provo. Salt Lake.
Liddiard, left end Russell Johnson, U. left tackle Petersen Johnson H., left guard Shaw Dana, center Hamilton Pratt, right guard Smith Hardy, right tackle Stanton Herlot, right end Basset Roberts, left end Clayton Mikesell, left guard Schefski Fernandez, left tackle Chaffin Hatton, left end Christy Sabo-Beck, right end Williams, Smoot, son, Davis, Dunn.

AGAINST THE SALOON.
Ohio's Law for Taxing the Liquor
Traffic is Held to be Constitutional.

Washington, Dec. 17.—The Supreme Court of the United States today affirmed the decision of the circuit court of the United States for the Southern district of Ohio in the case of the Rayman Brewing company vs. Harry Briner, treasurer of Jefferson county, Ohio. The case involved the constitutionality of the Dow Ohio State law providing for the taxation of liquor traffic. The company is a West Virginia corporation, and it is alleged that in the seizure of its property to pay the tax there was discrimination because it is not an Ohio institution, and that therefore the statute is void. The court held that while there is a proviso exempting sales in quantities of more than one gallon at the place of manufacture, the exemption is not confined to Ohio corporations or partnerships. The exemption, Justice Shiras, who delivered the opinion of the court, said, came within the exercise of the police power of the State, and was intended to lessen the evils attaching to saloons. It was not, therefore, a violation of the Constitution of the United States.

Non-Sectarian Prayer Meeting.
New York, Dec. 18.—A number of the leading clergymen and laymen of this city, have proposed the idea of holding a non-sectarian series of prayer meetings during the last week of the nineteenth century. It is intended that these meetings be held in various churches, but under the direction of a body of denominations and not sectarian. A circular to this effect has been sent out signed by Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clark, Boston; George T. Purves, Robert S. MacArthur, Henry Motett, J. Wilbur Chapman, David J. Burrell, S. Parks Cadman, A. C. Dixon, Cortland Myers, J. F. Carson, all of New York; James I. Vance, Newark; James H. Ely, of Philadelphia; John H. Converse, Philadelphia; Wm. E. Moody, Northfield, Mass.; John S. Huyler and John M. Connell, New York; Gen. O. Howard, Gen. E. Steeby, Brattleboro, and George E. Beems, Mrs. Margaret Bottoms and Mrs. Mary McElroy.
As planned, the prayer meetings will be held on Monday evening, December 18, at 7:30, and church officials of the metropolitan district in the Y. M. C. A. hall on Monday afternoon, December 21, at 2:30.

It is issued by Cardinal Crosti, prefect of the Sacred congregation of indulgence and rites, and signed also by Archbishop

This will be addressed by three or four of the leading pulpits orators of New York and Philadelphia.
Following the first of the New Year the first week will be devoted to daily prayer services in all parts of the nation. The movement is known as the twentieth century gospel campaign.

Rumored Boer Defeat.
New York, Dec. 18.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says:
Rumors were current in London last night that Gen. Koenig had indicated a crushing defeat on the Boer commandos, and that the Boer force had been utterly routed on the Orange river. At the war office no confirmation could be obtained of these reports.
A decisive British success at this time would add considerably to the average Englishman's enjoyment of Christmas festivities.

Communist Schwab Dead.
New York, Dec. 18.—Justus H. Schwab, the communist, who was sent to the penitentiary for his alleged participation in the Tomkins Square riots in January, 1874, and who was pardoned by Gov. Dix, is dead.
